MEMORIAL

In this temple as in the hearts of the people for whom he saved the Union, the memory of Abraham Lincoln is enshrined forever.

This memorial honors the virtues of tolerance, honesty, and constancy in the human spirit. The man whose likeness presides over this marbled hall used these virtues in the practice of statecraft. And from it flowed everlasting benefit to his nation and an enduring inspiration to his countrymen.

Had Lincoln been an ordinary president—even an ordinary hero—an ordinary monument would have sufficed and no doubt would have been quickly built. More than half a century elapsed, however, before an appropriate memorial to the man arose in the Nation's Capital. It seemed as if time stood aside until coming generations could fashion the perfect tribute to their benefactor. The memorial is neither temple, palace, nor tomb, but partakes something of all. It seems to gather within its marble walls the spirit of the man's character, his belief that all people should be free, free to think and express themselves, and free to apply their natural talents and ambitions in lawful enterprise.

Building the Memorial

The first organized effort to erect a monument to Lincoln in Washington occurred 2 years after his death. An act of Congress approved March 29, 1867, incorporated the Lincoln Monument Association. The association appealed for subscriptions and prepared plans for a monument. But there was no practical accomplishment from this effort. The years passed. Although numerous subsequent efforts were made to secure a memorial, it was not until February 1911 that Congress passed the legislation that procured it. In that act, Congress provided for a "Commission to secure plans and designs for a Monument or Memorial to the memory of Abraham Lincoln."

The commission held its first meeting on March 4, 1911. Almost a year later, at its 10th meeting on February 3, 1912, it decided to locate the memorial in Potomac Park on the axis of the Capitol and the Washington Monument, facing east toward them. This site had been recommended by the Commission of Fine Arts. Upon invitation, Henry Bacon and John Russell Pope, architects of New York City, prepared designs for a structure. The commission selected Henry Bacon to prepare a final design, and Congress approved this on January 29, 1913.

Workmen broke ground at the site selected for the memorial on February 12, 1914. The cornerstone was laid a year later. As work progressed on the structure, the commission selected Daniel Chester French to sculpture the Lincoln statue and Jules Guerin to design and execute murals for the end walls and the ornamentation on the bronze ceiling beams. After more than 6 years of work at the site, the completed memorial was dedicated in a ceremony on Memorial Day, May 30, 1922. Chief Justice William Howard Taft, as chairman of the commission, presented the memorial to President Harding who accepted it for the United States.

The columns are not vertical but are tilted slightly inward. The four corner columns have the greatest incline. The outer facade of the building above the columns also is tilted inward, but less so than the columns. The walls of the building similarly incline inward, but less than either the colonnade and facade. This structural characteristic eliminates the optical illusion of a building bulging at the top.

The 2 tripods, 1 on either side of the steps to the entrance of the memorial, are 9 feet high, each cut from a single block of pink Tennessee marble. The Piccirilli brothers of New York carved the tripods.

The Statue of Lincoln

Daniel Chester French designed and made the model for the statue of the seated Lincoln. It represents Lincoln as the War President. The statue from head to foot is 19 feet high. The scale is such that if Lincoln were standing he would be 28 feet tall. The extreme width of the statue, including the drapery over the chair, is the same as its height—19 feet. There are 28 blocks of Georgia white marble in the sculptured statue. The Piccirilli brothers carved the stone in their New York studio, spending more than 4 years on the huge statue. Mr. French personally assisted in this work. Experiments with models showed that the statue, originally planned to be 10 feet tall, would be dwarfed and out of scale in the large hall where it would stand. This led to a change in the contract with Mr. French to double the size of the statue, so that it would be 19 or 20 feet tall.

The statue rests on an oblong pedestal of Tennessee marble 10 feet, 3 inches high, 18 feet, 1 inch wide, and 19 feet, 2 inches deep at the base. This in turn rests on a platform of Tennessee marble.

The Murals

The two murals on the north and south walls represent allegorically principles of conduct and thought evident in the life of Abraham Lincoln. These murals, painted by Jules Guerin, are each 60 feet long and 12 feet high. Each piece of canvas weighed about 600 pounds; approximately 150 pounds of paint were used on each. The mural above the Gettysburg Address on the south wall features an Angel of Truth freeing a slave. On the left and right, groups represent Justice and Immortality. The mural above the Second Inaugural Address on the north wall features the unity of the North and South. On the left and right, groups represent Fraternity and Charity.

FOUR SCORE AND SEVEN YEARS
AGO OUR FATHERS BROUGHT FORTH
ON THIS CONTINENT A NEW NATION
CONCEIVED IN LIBERTY AND DEDICA-TED TO THE PROPOSITION THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL.

NOW WE ARE ENGAGED IN A GREAT
CIVIL WAR TESTING WHETHER THAT
NATION OR ANY NATION SO CON-
CEIVED AND SO DEDICATED CAN LONG
ENDURE. WE ARE MET ON A GREAT
BATTLEFIELD OF THAT WAR. WE HAVE COME TO DEDICATE A PORTION OF
THAT FIELD AS A FINAL RESTING
PLACE FOR THOSE WHO HERE GAVE THEIR LIVES THAT THAT NATION
MIGHT LIVE. IT IS ALTOGETHER FIT-TING AND PROPER THAT WE SHOULD
DO THIS. BUT IN A LARGER SENSE
WE CAN NOT DEDICATE—WE CAN NOT
CONSECRATE—WE CAN NOT HALLOW—
THIS GROUND. THE BRAVE MEN LIV-
ING AND DEAD WHO STRUGGLED HERE
HAVE CONSECRATED IT FAR ABOVE
OUR POOR POWER TO ADD OR DETRACT.
THE WORLD WILL LITTLE NOTE NOR
LONG REMEMBER WHAT WE SAY HERE
BUT IT CAN NEVER FORGET WHAT THEY DID HERE. IT IS FOR US THE LIVING
RATHER TO BE DEDICATED HERE TO
THE UNFINISHED WORK WHICH THEY
WHO FOUGHT HERE HAVE THUS FAR
SO NOBLY ADVANCED. IT IS RATHER FOR US TO BE HERE DEDICATED TO THE
GREAT TASK REMAINING BEFORE US—
THAT FROM THESE HONORED DEAD
WE TAKE INCREASED DEVOTION TO THAT CAUSE FOR WHICH THEY GAVE THE
LAST FULL MEASURE OF DEVOTION—
THAT WE HERE HIGHLY RESOLVE THAT THESE DEAD SHALL NOT HAVE DIED IN VAIN—THAT THIS NATION UNDER GOD
SHALL HAVE A NEW BIRTH OF FREEDOM—
AND THAT GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE
BY THE PEOPLE FOR THE PEOPLE SHALL NOT PERISH FROM THE EARTH.
